For the year thus far there is a iecrease of nearly 49,000 indicated comared with the same period last year. For the week ending yesterday local packers bought a total of 9,210, against 9,314 the preceding week and 13,939 the same week a year ago. During the same period the shipments were 2,859, against 4,486 the preceding week and 8,332 the corresponding week a year ago. There have been frequent and lecided changes in the market this week. The first half of the week there was a gradual decline, and the last half of the week prices were very irregular, being nigher on some grades and lower on others. At the extreme close of the week, however, values were 5@10c higher than the close of last week and 10@15c higher than the beginning of this week.
